UM ALUMNI COLLEGE WILL FOCUS ON ORWELL'S '1984'

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Alumni College, a "summer camp" for adults that combines recreation and intellectual stimulation, will be in session Aug. 3-5 on the campus in Missoula and at UM's Lubrecht Forest near Greenough. July 27 is the deadline for registration.

"Looking Back at the Future" is the theme of this year's program, which will focus on George Orwell's "1984." Five UM faculty members will conduct seminars on the Orwell classic, each treating the novel from a different perspective and relating it to the present and the future.

Sheila M. Stearns, director of Alumni Relations, will direct the college. The faculty consists of John D. Pulliam, dean of the School of Education; Ruth J. Patrick, dean of Library Services; James Cox, professor of chemistry; Stewart Justman, associate professor of English; and Richard Drake, assistant professor of history.

In addition to the sessions on campus, the college includes an excursion to Lubrecht Forest for more discussion, hiking, fishing, volleyball and a float trip.

The registration fee of $90 for adults includes room, board, transportation to Lubrecht, and texts. A $30 deposit is required, and the balance may be paid at the time of registration or in monthly installments. Information about the college is available from the Alumni Center, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; (406) 243-5211.
